MOST HOLY TRINITY— Year C

Proverbs 8.22—31 Psalm 8
Romans 5.1-5 John 16.12-15

WITH TRINITY SUNDAY we have the opportunity to name the spiritual intensity of the past nine weeks. Starting with Palm Sunday, we have realized the boundless love of God the Son through the Passion and Resurrection of Christ Jesus. We have celebrated the glorious welcome of God the Father with the Ascension of the Son from earth into heaven. And we have received anew the out-pouring of God the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

One conclusion of the Paschal Mysteries is that the identify of God—the Almighty, the Immortal and the Living—is far beyond human understanding . The Church Fathers named this "Trinity," the divine relationship of the Three-in-One. This identity points to the "much more I have to tell you, but new it would be too much for you to know" that Jesus refers to in today's Gospel. It also reveals an underlying theme of Scripture—that "all that the Father has," which is Jesus: to give and the Holy Spirit's to declare to us, is omnipresent.

Will we casually celebrate this Solemnity today, and carry on as if the Trinity is too enigmatic, too infinite and too intimidating to engage in real life? Or going forward in Ordinary Time, will we truly live into the enlivening and divine relationship named The Holy Trinity that we are called to embrace, day by day?

Pentecost, the Holy Trinity, and Corpus Christi are three important feasts in the Catholic Church, each celebrating a different aspect of the Christian faith.

Pentecost commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles, while the Holy Trinity celebrates God's nature as one God in three persons: Father, Son (Jesus), and Holy Spirit.

Corpus Christi, which means "Body of Christ," focuses on the Eucharist, where believers believe Jesus is present in the bread and wine.
